All Democrats May Enter.

The Democratic Congressional Committee met at Lexington Tuesday and rescinded the resolution authorizing a primary election and barring all Democratic voters except those who voted for Goebel.

Committeemen T. E. Moore, Jr., of Bourbon, offered a resolution rescinding the original call, but it was lost by a tie vote. The following substitute was passed at the afternoon session:

WHEREAS, this committee, realizing that the expense of $2,000 for a primary election is too great a burden for the candidates to bear, and that it might prohibit some worthy candidates from offering their claims to this honor; therefore, be it

Resolved, That precinct conventions be held in the various voting precincts in each county in the Seventh Congressional district at 3 o'clock, standard time, on the 6th day of July, 1900, for the purpose of selecting precinct delegates to represent said precincts at the delegate conventions to be held at the court houses of the respective counties on July 7 at 2 o'clock, standard time, 1900, which convention shall select delegates to represent their respective counties in the district convention to be held at Paris, Ky., on July 10 at 2 o'clock, standard time, 1900. The basis of representation of each precinct shall be one delegate for every 100 votes cast for Bryan in 1896, and one delegate for each fraction, if each fraction exceeds fifty votes or over; provided that each precinct shall have at least one voter in said delegate convention. In the district convention the representation shall be as follows: Each county shall be entitled to one vote for every 200 votes cast for Bryan in 1896 and for a fraction of 100 or over.

Resolved, That the persons who will, at the November election, 1900, be legal voting in this district, who are devoted to the principles of the Democratic party, and who by participating in this convention will feel in honor bound to support its nominee and the nominees of the Democratic National Convention, shall have the right and are hereby invited to participate in this convention.

Neglect is the short step so many take from a cough or cold to consumption. The early use of One Minute Cough Cure prevents consumption. It is the only harmless remedy that gives immediate results. It cures all throat and lung troubles. Children all like it and mothers endorse it. W. T. Brooks.

The Democratic District Convention to be held in this city on July 10th will be the first held in Paris with the memory of the present generation. The honor of securing it for Paris belongs to that rising young lawyer and politician, T. E. Moore, Jr., who was untiring in his efforts to bring the convention to Paris.
